

“Sophistication, beauty, and independence.... Finally, we have pinpointed a collection that addresses our individual spirits. Construction, structure, and elegance are the hallmarks of PARTY NOIRE, which speaks to female power and grace. It is this subversive mix of characteristics that makes this line so easily wearable. “ sparkleshelf.com

“Black helps, but it’s really just a color (or lack thereof). To work, a piece needs an interesting structure or silhouette, which is what Bucharest based designer Party Noire focuses on. I really love how the silhouettes are highlighted in this achromatic collection.” the-coveted.com

“Romanian designer Alina Cosma's style is very sharp, chic and edgy. I think the dark but romantic feel is very much in tune with where the industry is heading now. “

“A black dress is an absolute staple in any fashionista's closet, but to stand out of from the rest and break up the monotony an LBD can bring, Party Noire's collection brings a breath of fresh air to something that can be so repetitive.” kickinoff.blogspot.com

“One of the most unique aspects of the Party Noire collection is that signature touches never fail to be seen and that is one of the most important aspects of a collection’s character.”
